

CALL FOR CONFERENCE SESSIONS

PLANNING TO LIVE, LIVING TO PLAN: 2016 OHIO-KENTUCKY-INDIANA (OKI) REGIONAL PLANNING CONFERENCE

INDIANAPOLIS, IN

OCTOBER 5-7, 2016

APA OH, APA KY, and APA IN are pleased to announce a call for conference sessions for the 2016 Regional Planning Conference on October 5-7, 2016, in Indianapolis.

The theme for the conference is Planning to Live, Living to Plan. We anticipate selecting at least 20 conference sessions. Regular conference sessions will be 1.25-1.5 hours. Session focus areas/tracks include:

- Health
- Transportation
- Sustainability, including tiny houses, water resources, life cycle communities, etc.
- Enhancing planning practice, including citizen planner appropriate sessions
- Economic development
- Miscellaneous, including law and ethics

Sessions will be judged, in part, on the following:

1. Sessions should include at least 2 speakers. If a session is about a single project, please include speakers from multiple perspectives. For example, a session about a unique comprehensive planning project could include the consultant and a planner or plan commission member from the county/township/city/town.
2. Sessions that utilize speakers from multiple states are preferred.
3. Sessions should be unbiased and non-promotional in nature.
4. With the exception of those designed for citizen planners, sessions should meet the requirements for CM credit and must be designed to teach subject matter in appropriate depth and scope for the level of the typical AICP member (i.e., a planner in current practice with at least four years of professional experience after earning a 2-year master's degree).

Session proposals are due June 15 at 5 pm EDT. Please complete the attached form and send electronically the APA-IN offices in care of Jill Ewing (317-634-5963 or jillewing@indianaplanning.org).
